

PHIL'S FINAL WORD

Restaurant Name		KIRIN
Address		Arago
Directions
		1-5 RATING	ADJECTIVES
Neighborhood
1. flavour	3	big avenue	Arago is big wide and busy. Many shops and museums (Tapies anyone?) right near by. Across from a giant billboard that has hoisted some famous sights, Michael Jordan fans might recognize it. Pick a direction and you'll end up somewhere with something to drink. You'll have to add another block, maybe avoid upper Aribau.
2. bars	3	up down, left right
3. discos	3	a bit farther
Quality of Service
1. speed	4	buffet!	Sit down, begin, where's the wasabi?
2. smiles	3	hmmm	Very brief, very business
Quality of Food

	1. type of cuisine	3	good but not special	The sushi is decent and it's all you can eat. Lots of other little snacks as well in addition to the raw fish. Conveyor belts running little plates around you, it's Christmas! Also offer Japanese steak house dishes which is a great thrill in addition to great food!
	2. style v substance	4	comfortable, functional	It's a nice atmosphere, clean, smooth, and of course the moving plates of sushi.
	3. desserts	3	normal	Nothing special
	4. café	3		If you've just spent 3 hours eating sushi you might want to take a walk to a café.
Atmosphere	1. clientele	3
	2. decor	3	comfortable
	3. music	n/a
	4. lighting	3	normal
	5. romance factor	3	all you can eat and romance don't mix?	That's how I always felt. You're there to eat. Sure, they have other things to order but let's be serious. The steak house option in the back would be a better bet.
Price	(8€for lunch, 12€at night)
Final rating	1	2	3	4 5
